

Der Gebrauch der richtigen Präpositionen im Englischen ist für Deutsche nicht so einfach. Die Sätze 11 und 13 sind für Anfänger noch zu schwer.

So hättest du dich entscheiden müssen:

1. Just like all the kids, some dogs always go to school.
2. George and James are the school dogs of the TMG.
3. When the two arrive at school at five past seven in the morning, they have already been up for more than two hours.
4. Before school in the morning, George and James go for a walk at five fifteen.
5. After the walk, they have breakfast in kitchen.
6. At five to seven they get into the car to school.
7. At school, kids are waiting to open the door for them.
8. Before the first lesson, George and James walk to Mrs Anzt's room.
9. Sometimes they wait in front of the door because Mrs Anzt is not there yet.
10. Mrs Anzt has got some treats in a box.
11. George and James eat their treats within seconds
12. The dogs know that Mr Beck keeps his treats in a glass jar.
13. James tells Mr Beck about the treats by sitting next to him and putting his head on the desk.
14. The kids hide their treats in empty rolls of toilet paper.
15. George and James like going to school.
16. George and James think it's really cool at school.